DYNAMITERS
IMPRISONEDDISGUISED HAWAIIAN OFFICERS CAPTURE MEN FISHING FOR MULLET WITH EXPLOSIVES.Through some clever detective work two dynamite-fishermen were yesterday morning lodged in jail. Under instructions from Captain Parker, Bicycle Officer Nawahi and W. K. Peter, disguised as fishermen, went out in a canoe off the reef opposite the sewer pumping station, Kakaako, and kept a sharp lookout for some Hawaiians who were expected to be thereabouts with dynamite cartridges for the slaughter of mullet.Sam Kanoho and Aika, said to be members of the National Guard, were soon on hand and built a little fire on the edge of the coral and lost no time going for fish, of which there were plenty. They lit their sticks at the fire and threw them into the water, using small nets to gather in the dead fish. Meanwhile the disguised officers were pretending to be fishing. At the psychological moment they landed near the dynamiters and placed them under arrest, Peter raising a large derby which came down over his ears and disclosing his familiar and official features.Dynamite cartridges, fuses, fishes and all things necessary as evidence were taken along with the prisoners to the police station. The dynamite was placed in the safe by Receiving Clerk Nelson and the fish were ordered to the ice-house for deposit until required as evidence in police court this morning.OCEANIC LINE LOSS AFFECTS AUCKLANDWASHINGTON, June 1.—Consul General Pickett at Auckland, New Zealand, reports officially that the business interests of that country are greatly depressed as a result of the withdrawal of the Oceanic Steamship line from San Francisco. He says:"The growing trade of this city with San Francisco will receive a rude setback. It will be a severe shock to our flourishing trade with all of the British possessions in the South Seas. Our commerce with the territory that was affected by the mail service is important.""The balance of trade in favor of the United States in 1905 was $3,611,- 000, while the increase in total trade in the last 10 years amounted to over 250 per cent. It is greatly to be regretted that this splendid growing commerce should be allowed to languish for the lack of an adequate mail service to San Francisco, to say nothing of the loss of prestige occasioned by the withdrawal of the only line of American steamers trading with Australia.""New Zealand, too, should be very much interested in an up to date passenger and mail service to San Francisco, for in addition to communication with London in the shortest time and the important trade relations, the colony was being visited each year by increasing numbers of tourists from America, who spent their money freely. It is now realized and admitted that New Zealand's share of the amount paid for carrying the mail between Auckland and San Francisco was too small.""What is a loss to the United States will undoubtedly be a gain to Canada.
That commonwealth is exerting itself to promote trade relations with Australia, and particularly with this colony. It has taken the trouble and expense to put up a fine building at the Christ Church exhibition and has an attractive display of the products of the dominion. The United States, with nearly ten times more trade with New Zealand, did nothing."

WHY THE COURT SMILED.

A lawyer whose attainments were scarcely of the first quality was arguing in one of the Philadelphia courts before a patient Judge. His argument was not without flaws, and at one point he fairly screamed out that if his client had done wrong then he, the lawyer, was equally wrong, for he failed to see that any fault had been committed."But, Mr. Blank," urged the Judge, "ignorance of the law excuses no man.""Your Honor," shouted the lawyer, "I do not want any excuse, what I say is excuse enough."CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.This is unquestionably the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, and it is now the recognized standard over a large part of the civilized world. A few doses of it will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea. For sale by all dealers,

THE HAWAII JIYU SHINBUN.

S. Sheba, the new editor of the Hawaii Jiyu Shinbun, in his first number, prints a friendly and very sensible editorial on affairs in this country, affecting both the Japanese and other residents. In part, the editor says:"We desire to interpret faithfully and to expound clearly to the Japanese reader the laws and policy of the Territory. There is a well known saying, 'When in Rome do as the Romans do.' Though many are here only temporarily, there are also many who will make this their permanent home; and their children, born under the American flag may claim the rights of citizenship. We therefore believe that they should be educated in such a way that the laws of the Territory be thoroughly understood and obeyed, that they should be thoroughly imbued with the American spirit; and we believe that those who are sojourners only should observe the proverb cited above and seek to understand and obey the laws of this land.
We, in Hawaii, must also realize that we are 'in the same boat' with the white people and must pull together, regardless of color or nationality for the welfare of the islands."
